Note for the Reader.

The present is the second volume of the Registers of the Diocese of St. Asaph which has been completed by the Shropshire Parish Register Society. It consists of the Registers of Whittington and Halston.

In this volume, as has been the plan adopted by the Council throughout, the Registers are not printed verbatim et literatim, but in abstract form, all mere verbiage being omitted, though every fact is recorded, and all occurrences, remarkable events, terriers, &c., given in the Registers are printed in full. The following abbreviations have been adopted :—

aff.	—	affidavit	gent.	—	gentleman.
b.	—	bachelor (or born).	lic.	—	license.
bap.	—	baptized.	mar.	—	married.
bd.	—	bastard.	p. (or par.)		parish.
bur.	—	buried.	P. (or Pr.)		pauper.
chr.	—	christened.	s.	—	son.
ch. w.	—	churchwardens.	sp.	—	spinster.
clk.	—	clerk.	w.	—	wife.
co.	—	county.	wid.	—	widow.
d.	—	daughter.	widr.	—	widower.
dioc.	—	diocese.	wit.	—	witnesses.
esq.	—	esquire.

A capital letter after "of" or "p." denotes the parish whose particular Register is being printed; thus "of W." = "of Whittington," and "p. H." = "parish of Halston."

Thanks are due to the Rev. E. Pell Edmonds for leave to print the Registers, and for facilities afforded in their transcription and collation. Also to Miss Leighton for transcribing and collating, and to Mr. R. Ll. Kenyon for the valuable historical introduction. The Register of Whittington is particularly interesting owing to the large number of entries it contains on all sorts of subjects. Mr. Kenyon has called attention to the more important of these on pp. vi. to viii. of his Introduction.

In indexing the Welsh names, the method adopted in the Oswestry Index has not been employed, but the name occurring after the first "ap" has been taken as the surname.

Whittington Registers.

The Parish Register Abstract of 1831 describes these as follows:—"Whittington R., Nos. I.—III. (parchment), Bap., Bur., Marr., 1591—1697, interrupted by No. IV. (parchment), Bur., 1678—1752. No. V. (parchment), Bap., 1701—1752, Marr., 1703—1753. Nos. VI., VII. (parchment), Bap., Bur., 1753—1808. No. VIII. (parchment), Bap., 1809—1812. No. IX. (parchment), Bur., 1809—1812. No. X., XI., Marr., 1754—1812." They are now differently arranged, and are as follows:—

1.—Bap., Bur., Marr., 1591 to 1642, parchment.
2.—Bap., Bur., Marr., 1643 to 1653, paper.
3.—Births 1653 to 1660, Bap., 1660 to 1701, Marr. 1660 to 1703, Bur. 1653 to 1698; parchment.
4.—Burials 1678 to 1752, parchment.
5.—Bap. 1701 to 1752, Marr. 1703 to 1754, parchment.
6.—Bap., 1753 to 1784, Bur. 1753 to 1790, parchment.
7.—Marr. and Banns, 1754 to 1791; of these the marriages to 1767 and the Banns to 1772 are on parchment, the remainder on paper.

All the above seven volumes are uniformly and handsomely bound in calf.

8.—Bap. 1785 to 1808, Bur. 1791 to 1808, parchment.
9.—Marr. 1792 to 1837, paper, printed forms.
10.—Bap. 1815 to 1837, with two entries of 1850, parchment.
11.—Bur. 1809 to 1832, parchment.
12.—Bur. 1813 to 1862, paper, printed forms. All entries in No. 11 from 1813 are copied into this.
13.—Bap. 1809 to 1864, parchment. All entries in No. 10 are copied into this.

Nos. 8 to 13 are all bound in boards, 8, 10, 11, and 13 being uniform.

14, 15, and 18 contain marriages from 1837, 16 baptisms from 1865, and 17 burials from 1864, to the present year, all on paper, printed forms, bound in boards.

All are in very good preservation.

Together with the registers there are in the Rectory safe two most interesting bound MS. volumes; the first is entitled "Papers relating to Whittington Parish, together with a brief history of Oswestry, Knockin, and Halston, written and collected by William Roberts, A.M., Rector of Whittington, 1774," to which title has been subsequently added "and also papers relating to Whittington continued to the present time, 1812." It contains a number of terriers from 1630 to 1791, lists of Church furniture, papers relating to the charities, local portraits and drawings, lists of Rectors, &c., &c. The information contained in it as to the church has been made use of in Archdeacon Thomas' History of the Diocese of St. Asaph. The second volume is entitled Parochialia, and was compiled by the Rev. W. W. How, afterwards Bishop of Wakefield. It contains many particulars as to the Schools, the Church, and the Parish generally, as well as many most amusing "ecclesiastical jottings" not specially connected with the neighbourhood. These volumes would afford most fascinating material for a historian of the parish. He would have also to his hand the very interesting Anglo-Norman History of Fulk Fitz Warine, the original or one of the originals of Robin Hood, a history full of local tradition and legend of the time of King John, edited by Mr. T. Wright for the Warton Club, and published in 1855; and the histories of the Babes in the Wood, and of Dick Whittington, both of which are claimed to belong to this Parish. Babes or Babies Wood is frequently mentioned in the Registers, in the later ones it is called as now, Babbins Wood. The Castle, of which there are still considerable and picturesque remains, was one of the larger and more important border fortresses, and the Fitz Warines, who owned it from the reign of Richard I. to that of Henry V., ranked and intermarried with the greatest families, and took their part in many historical events. There are few parishes with so many materials for an interesting history.

A pamphlet of 41 pages on the subject, by William Davies, was published about 1812, and gives some interesting particulars and several of the curious entries in the registers. An account of the Fitz Warine family may be found in the Shropshire Archæological Transactions for 1882 (Vol. V.) The family became extinct in the male line in the reign of Henry V., and the Manor and Castle of Whittington passed to several families in succession, and at last were bought with the Mansion House of Fernhill in 1576 by William Albany, merchant Tailor, of London, ancester of the present owners, the Lloyds of Aston. Particulars of the transfers of the estate before his time are given in Dukes' Antiquities of Shropshire, page 312. William Albany settled at Fernhill and his descendants are recorded in the Herald's Visitation of 1623. His son Francis was Sheriff in 1595, and was succeeded by another Francis, who was the owner in 1623, and was buried at Whittington, 17th January, 1635. His daughter Sarah married Thomas Lloyd of Aston, who is mentioned in the Register of 28th August, 1648, and October, 1649, as "now Lord of the Manor of Whittington," and the burial of Sarah Lloyd "Lady of the Manor of Whittington" is entered on 27th September, 1693. Their descendants have held the Lordship ever since, and are recorded in Burke's Landed Gentry. The Lords of the Manor have always been the Patrons of the living.

The ecclesiastical history of the Parish has been written by Archdeacon Thomas in his History of the Diocese of St. Asaph, and the uninteresting architecture of the Church is described in Mr. Cranage's Architectural Account of the Churches of Shropshire. The oldest part of the present Church is the tower, built in 1746, but a decorated window now in the Castle is said to have come out of the old Church. A Rector of Whittington is mentioned in 1218, and how long before that there was a church here is not known. There was a Chantry of our Lady in it suppressed at the Reformation. (See Certificates of Colleges and Chantries in the Record Office, cert. 41, No. 18).

Many of the names and particulars in the following list of Rectors have been kindly supplied to me by Archdeacon Thomas, and are supplementary to those given in the first edition of his History of the Diocese of St. Asaph.

In 12th Century.	Fulk (Archd. Thomas).
	William de Eaton (Archd. Thomas).
About 1218.	David Vewan (Eyton X., 349).
Between 1219 and 1263.	Randolph (Shropsh. Arch. Trans. for 1882, p. 245—248).
Abour 1290 to 1315.	John Waghham. He was ordered to be tried in 1312 for taking part in the siege of a Castle of John de Cherleton and Hawisia his wife, and a raid on their land (Patent Roll, Dec. 26, 1312), and may be presumed to be the John who witnessed a deed in the 13th century (Eyton X., 344).
1349—	Roger de Acton, Clerk, appointed 2nd Nov., 1349, by Edward III. as "Custos of the heir of Fulk Fitz Warine, the Patron (Patent 23, Edw. III., pars. 3, m. 21). The vacancy may have been caused by the "Black Death."

In 1377.	Thomas Dier, Clerk, and Dns Philip, Chaplain, at Whittington, occur, but there is nothing to show that either of them was Rector. The Chaplain may have been the Priest of the Chantry which was suppressed at the Reformation.
1419.	Sir John Silatton.
1437.	William Hille (Papal Letters).
1448.	Sir David Irelonde. The last 5 names are supplied by Archdeacon Thomas.
In 1520.	Robert Holbache (Shropsh. Arch. Trans. for 1882, p. 240). He left descendants (Powys Fadog IV., 93).
1532—1534.	David Owen, instituted 1532 (MS. at Aston), made Preb. of Meifod and Vicar of Oswestry, 1534 (History of Diocese, p. 655).
1534—1535.	Ric. Kyffin (Register, p. 438). Died 1535.
1535—1582.	John Price or ap Rice, LL.B.; Vicar of Oswestry the same time, and buried there the 20th March, 1582. (Oswestry Register and information from Archd. Thomas).
1583—1585.	David Kyffin (Register, p. 438).
1585—1605 [?]	John Bagshawe, Vicar of Oswestry, 1591—1599 (History of Diocese, p. 657, 676; Register, p. 4, 5, 9).
1605—1608.	Fulk Price, M.A., Coll. by Bishop, 1605 (Register, p. 438; but it is here stated that Williams was presented in 1608 on Bagshawe's death).
1608—1652.	Edward Williams, M.A. (Register, p. 3, 30, 150). He signed the loyal address of the Clergy to the King of Aug. 24th, 1642, and is said in History of Diocese to have been deprived (p. 676, note), but he was buried at Whittington and described as Rector in the Register, 8th July, 1652.
1666—1680.	Robert Powell, D.D. These Registers give many particulars about him and his family, pp. 200, 202, 260, 263.
1681—1718.	Thomas Adams, M.A. (History of Diocese, p. 676; Register, p. 207, 208, 262, 285).
1718—1722.	Thomas Cooke, M.A., resigned (Register, p. 357, 438).
1722—1749.	Richard Boycott, M.A. (Register, 378, 412, 438). At p. 413 it is stated that he succeeded Cooke in 1729.
1749—1784.	William Roberts, M.A. (Register, 407, 410, 411, 412, 554). He rebuilt the Rectory House, p. 454.
1784—1801.	John Robert Lloyd, M.A., Patron of the Living; rebuilt Aston; died 10th Aug., 1801.
1801—1809.	Whitehall Whitehall Davies, added 4 new rooms to the Rectory House and rebuilt the Church. He resigned in 1809. See Register, p. 669, for many particalars about him.
1809—1851.	Charles Arthur Albany Lloyd, second son of John Robert Lloyd (Register, 669).
1851—1879.	William Walsham How, M.A. Resigned on being appointed Suffragan Bishop of Bedford. A life of him was published by his son in 1898.
1879—1886.	Henry Powell Ffoulkes, M.A., Archdeacon of Montgomery. Died.

1886—1896.	Hugh Holbech, M.A., son-in-law of the Patron. Resigned.
1896—	Edward Pell Edmonds, M.A., married a niece of Lady Frances Lloyd, wife of the Patron.

This list indicates that the same Rector continued in office throughout the whole of the Reformation changes, from the suppression of the smaller monasteries to the middle of Queen Elizabeth's reign; and that another continued throughout the whole of Charles I.'s reign, and till after the Battle of Worcester. From 1653 to 1660 no marriages are entered, as they were then celebrated before magistrates; and births were registered instead of baptisms; but the old register continued in use (see p. 161), and immediately on the Restoration entries in the old form were resumed. In 1653 one would not have expected to find Shrove Tuesday mentioned (p. 183). The names till the end of Elizabeth's reign seem nearly all Welsh, ap and verch being almost always used for son and daughter; the use of these gradually diminishes, and almost ceases after the Restoration. The change indicates that the English language was superseding the Welsh, but probably does not prove that inhabitants of Welsh descent were getting much less numerous.

In 1591 and 1592 the absence of the Churchwardens seems to have been always noted when it occurred, apparently because it was their business to see that the proper entries were made in the register (p. 5—8); and in Apr., 1592, we are told that "warninge was given to the Churchwardens and Sidesmen to note who weare absent on Marke daye from devine service," absence on holy days being contrary to the Act of Uniformity, I. Eliz., c. 2.

Illegitimate children seem to have been rather common, and were generally registered as "supposed" child of the father, the mother's name not being given (p. 21, 22, &c.); but after about 1722 "natural" is used instead of "supposed." Mr. Roberts generally gives the names of both parents.

In 1734 in the case of legitimate children the practice was adopted of naming both father and mother, a most useful help in tracing genealogies.

An analysis of the number of baptisms, deaths and marriages registered at various periods will be found on p. 522, and seems to indicate that in 1730—50 the population was very considerably greater than it had been before 1700, but that from 1750 to 1780 it somewhat decreased.

In the Banns register are several entries of banns being stopped (p. 597—600).

The Registers contain references to an unusual number of persons styled Esquire; Hunt, Owen, Albany, and Turner of Fernhill; Powell and Pope of Evenhall; Penryn, Powell, Charlton, Knipe and Kinchant of Park Hall; Lloyd, of Foxhall and of Aston; Powell of Whittington; Salisburye of Ruge, Merionethshire; Williams of Penbedw and Drenewith; Mytton of Halston; Wynne of Mold; Kynaston of Shrewsbury; Corbet of Sundorne; Kenyon of Prado; as well as to others styled gentleman; Lloyd, Eyton, Evans, Jones, of Whittington; Eyton of Ebnall; Lloyd of Pentre Aron; Lloyd of Drenewith; Lloyd of Llwyn-y-maen; Turner of Old port; Maddox of the Pool; Hawkins of London. "Sir John Edds of the Halston" was buried in 1601, but whether he was a knight or a clergyman has not been ascertained.

But the peculiar feature which makes the Whittington Registers more interesting than almost any other in the County, is the large number of entries on all sorts of extraneous subjects, inserted for the most part, but not exclusively, by the Rev. Wm. Roberts, Rector from 1749 to 1784.

The alteration of the calendar in 1752 is commented on (p. 326, 328), and we are told that "a person going to bed on the night of Sept. 2nd awoke on the morning of the 14th" (p. 417). Events of general, rather than local interest, which are recorded are the first appearance of a stage coach in Shrewsbury in 1761 (p. 460); a land slip of 30 acres near Buildwas in 1773 (p. 485); a Parliamentary contest in 1774 as to which many particulars relating to local candidates are given (p. 490); and several phases of the war of American Independence (p. 499, 508, 514, 519, 522—9). ; and a hurricane which caused great destruction in the West Indies in 1781 (p. 518). Mr. Roberts' personal opinions on politics are freely expressed (p. 508, 514, 516), and several miscellaneous political events of 1783 are recorded on pp. 528, 529. In 1782—3 a remarkable haze, of a pale blue colour, extended over the whole of Europe (p. 567). But naturally most of the entries are of matters of more exclusively local interest.

There is an inventory of the furniture and possessions of the Church in 1602 (p. 1, 2); particulars as to the appropriation of the seats, and as to gallery, pulpit, &c., in 1640, 1713, and 1754 (p. 139, 281, 532, 536); as to a wooden steeple taken down in 1737 (p. 383); and improvement of the Rectory barn in 1761 (p. 460); the putting up of a new altar piece, and the Creed, &c., in gold letters, is recorded in 1774 (p. 552); the rebuilding of the chancel and establishment of a Sunday School in 1785 (p. 569); the enlargement of the Rectory House in 1801—2 and 1805—6 (p. 662, 670), and the re-building of the Church in 1805—6 (p. 665, 667). The destruction of some old yew trees in the churchyard and plantation of lime trees in 1762—3 by Mr. Roberts is complacently recorded by himself, and very unfavourably commented on by "J.F.M.D.," i.e., Mr. Dovaston, of the Nursery, West Felton, a well known local antiquary, but certainly with no right to annotate the registers (p. 542). The Rector's right to tithes in 1684 and later is defined (p. 540); and long reports of legal decisions as to tithes are entered (p. 490, 497, 505). Lists of Rectors are given (p. 413, 438), as well as lists of Rectors of Selattyn (p. 326, 328, 437). There is a list of local charities (p. 600); and much information as to local boundaries, roads, and bridges (p. 473—485, 496, 501, 657, 668—9), and the enclosure of commons in 1777 (p. 557), and the Ellesmere Canal Act of 1793 is mentioned (p. 622). An earthquake is said to have been felt in the Parish in 1775 (p. 496); and the establishment of an Agricultural Society in Oswestry in 1808 is recorded (p. 669). Lists of occurrences in the Parish in 1809—1812 (p. 681, 686, 689, 693) include the repair of the Castle and discovery of curiosities there, the establishment of a boys' and girls' school "on Mr. Lancaster's plan," the establishment of the Female Friendly Society, and the sending of a number of French prisoners to Oswestry.

On the deaths of parishioners interesting particulars are often given about them. We are told of an apothecary and surgeon who employed his spare time as a highwayman, and was assisted by his wife dressed in man's clothes (p. 323); and of wonderful cures performed by another local surgeon, who seems to have been less educated but more useful (p. 540). Amusing poetical epitaphs are inserted on the death of a Parish Clerk (p. 546), of the Aston Decoyman (p. 555), of "Governor" Peate, of Whittington Castle (p. 561), and of Mammy Browne (p. 562); and in the year in which he died Mr. Roberts inserted some lines about himself and his son, to which the Parish Clerk afterwards appended a very uncomplimentary couplet (p. 567). There is a Latin eulogy of Elizabeth, widow of the Rev. William Lloyd, Lord of the Manor (p. 552), and on the same page is recorded the death of the "late Huntsman to the Rector," in 1775, so it would seem that Mr. Roberts kept hounds, as his successor, who was the owner of Aston, certainly did. The latter entered particulars in the register of two great plantations of oak which he made, for which he received gold medals (p. 569, 622, 689). The qualifications of a parish clerk, and the mode of his appointment, in 1767, are given on page 546.

Particulars of prices and wages are entered in many places by Mr. Roberts, who seems to have been reputed to take excessive interest in these things (p. 542, 568); and he made many entries also about the weather, and about the health of the parish. Small-pox was very virulent in 1775 and 1776, in 1780—1, and in 1811, and the mode in which it was treated by the common people is mentioned (p. 553). Influenza is also described in 1775, and several other "disorders of the season" are recorded (p. 559, 560, 564). From 1775 the cause of death is generally entered, and from 1776 the age at death is given. An analysis of the ages at death in 1791—2 is given on p. 657.

Miss Leighton has added another to the many services rendered by her family to the Society by getting these registers transcribed, and by collating them. It only remains to add that they are now printed with the consent of the Rev. Edward Pell Edmonds, the present rector, and that they form part of Mrs. Seymour's generous gift to the Society in memory of her brother the late Mr. Stanley Leighton, M.P.

EDWARD MAURICE, Curate.

CHARLES BOOTH
the mark of WILL. W. MATHEWS } Churchwardens.

The Revd. Richard Boycot, M.A., Rr., died in Febyr, 1749. Thos: Lloyd, Esqr: of Aston, patron of the Church of Whittington, and Lord of the Manor, presented the revd. William Roberts, M.A., to the Rectory thereof.

Edward Prichard was associated with a gang of bold Highwaymen who infested this neighbourhood & many other parts of this kingdom. He was a stout & well built man. He outlived his depredations on the publick & retired to his apothecary's shop & died peacefully in his bed at the age of 78.

[Note written in margin]

*Prichard gloried much that he had never committed murder. It is said his wife accompanied him & robbed with him in men's clothes.

Thomas Lloyd, Junr., Esq., died at Aston, March 8, 1752, aged 25.

1752.

In the year 1751 an act of Parliament passed which decreed that the new year should begin in future on the first day in January, and that eleven intermediate days (nominal) between the 2nd & 14th days of September, 1752, should be for that time omitted.

The great Roger Bacon had long ago noticed before 1752, that time was not correctly kept.

Succession of the Rectors of Selattyn continued, see year 1752.

JOHN WYNN, EDWD. DAVIES } Churchwardens.

Extract from John Ap Rice's will as far as relates to the legacy bequeathed by him for the use of the Poor of Whittington.

Item. I give devise & bequeath the rent of one parcel of land commonly known by the name of Bryn Rhig into the hands of the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the parish of Whittington by what name or title whatsoever they be called, and I give, devise, and bequeath this same parcel of land called Bryn Rhig to John Rogers & his heirs forever paying the yearly rent of fifty shillings to the use aforesaid, and my will and meaning is that they do buy cloth of sixteen pence a yard or thereabouts for and towards the cloathing of the Poorest folkes within the said parish yearly for ever, and I desire the Parson of the said parish from time to time to see the same performed yearly forever according to my true intent.

N.B.—Halston Bridge was built by John Mytton, Esq: upon his removing the road to a better distance from his house & much to the benefit of the Publick. The road from Evenal to Caegwern before the Turnpike Act of 1764 chang'd it, the horse-pavement lay in the Township of Francton & was repaired by the Inhabitants: the cart or carriage road in the parish of Halston & repair'd by Halston—by the present change the whole road is in Francton.

1770, May 23. Rebecca, d. of John Mytton Esqre., & Rebecca his w., born & baptiz'd at Halston.

N.B.—The parish boundary between New Martin in the parish of Ellesmere and the Townships of Hindford & Old Martin in this parish, seems not to have been well understood. The bottom, or carriage road leading from a current of water in the road leading from New Martin to Old Martin Gate belongs to the Township of New Martin, the horse-pavement on the west side of the said road belongs to the Township of Hindford and so the parish boundary is continued by an unbroken line from that pavement round the parish of Halston & the Township of Rudge in the parish of Ellesmere till it unites again in Old Martin Aber-oer-field on the East Side of the aforesaid bottom or Carriage road—this bottom road is the only link in the chain wich unites the parish of Elesmere together, otherwise one part of the Township of New Martin will be separated from the other being intercepted by a part of the parish of Whittington and the Township of Rudge will be likewise separated in like manner from it's parish—or in other words the Parishoners of Ellesmere in walking the boundary of their parish must walk across part of the parish of Whittington before they can go the boundary of part of New Martin & Rudge, whereas admitting this bottom road to be in New Martin the boundary line of each parish will be preserv'd unbroken.

W. Roberts, Rr.

To explain this matter further the Parishoners of Whittington in walking their boundary must from the Hindford Pavement turn off & walk round Halston parish & Rudge to come to the Aber-oer-field walking several miles to get at a point where when they were at the Hindford Pavement was within a few yards of them.

N.B.—A remarkable dry March & April—May set in excessive cold & frosty.

Labourers scarce, wages high & markets high. Turnpikes have contributed to advance the price of labour to private families, so many hands being engaged in the repairs of the roads.

The Turnpike Act pass'd in 1764 for altering the road from Ellesmere to the road leading from Oswestry to Wrexham near the finger Post and for repairing the same has occasion'd an alteration in the parish boundary as to its description, the road being alter'd at Halston Bridge the course of the river Perry chang'd there; the road is likewise alter'd between Halston & Francton, from a part near Evenal to Cae-Gwern. Mr. Lloyd of Aston for the purpose of draining his lands at the iron mill sunk the channel of the river crossing the road, & caus'd a bridge to be made over the channel, wch. bridge is to be maintain'd by him, being for the improvement of his lands. W. Roberts.

A Remarkable Slip of the earth near Buildwas bridge in this county, above thirty acres of land being remov'd, stopp'd the course of the river Severne, the navigation of the river was for some time interrupted, but the water soon forced a new passage. A Barn was swallow'd in the Chasm wch. still remains open, several Trees were thrown up by the roots & others travell'd standing. It was call'd an Earthquake, but this phenomenon was attended with no tremulous motion of the earth or air, but confined to the spot only. It is most probable the river had undermin'd it, and that It was a slip. W. ROBERTS.

On the 16th Feby. about 12 o'ck: at night a most remarkable storm of Thunder attended with a high wind & extraordinary hail alarm'd this neighbourhood. The effects of it were severely felt at the Revd. Mr. Thomas Edwards's new house at Mount. Sion in the parish of Selattyn. The windows in the West: end were all shatter'd: about a foot square of the foundation seemed as if ramm'd in with a force that spattled the dirt as high as the Cornish: the traces of the Lightening were apparent on every side of the house, & to be found in every room within it. Two of the chimneys were damag'd, one clear to the roof: the Closet in Mrs. Edwards's room was divested of the partition, door & all being shiver'd & drove to the Bedside, a stand of a head Clock damag'd by the Bedside, & the wire of the Bell melted off. Tho' thus beset on all sides Mr. & Mrs Edwards escap'd unhurt, most providentially escap'd. Some pieces of plate in the Closet had marks as if with shot thro' them: the wires in Mrs. Edwards's Caps were like petrified together, & the linen as if Chew'd by a Dog. The pointer dog on the kitchen hearth was kill'd & four chickens in the poultry yard were killed, & four left alive. The lives of the family were all preserv'd. The alarm was dreadfull, but the damage of repairs to the house did not exceed seven or eight pounds.

TYTHE CAUSE. CHAPLAIN Appellant
BREE Rector of Rysom in the County of Lincoln Respondent.

House of Lords March 10th 1775. 15th G. iiid.

Chaplin was owner & occupier of Lands for wch. he paid a modus or Cómposition of 15 : 10 : 1½. This being considerably under value; Bree exhibited a Bill in the Exchequer in Hilary term 1769 praying that the Appellant might be deem'd to acc'nt with him according to the full value of the same. The Barons having heard both Parties, directed two issues to be tried at the next Lincoln Assizes. The First to enquire, whether the Lands of Grange de Linge were in the parish of Rysom; the second whether there had been any Composition real [?] between the Patron & Parish previous to the reign of Queen Elizabeth [?]. On the 25 & 26th of March both matters came to be determined before Mr. Justice Blackstone & two special Juries at Lincoln; when verdicts on both issues were found for the Apellant, that Grange de Linge was extra-parochial; & that there had been an antient Composition real [?] paid in lieu & full satisfaction of Tythes & Ecclesiastical Dues.—The Respondent looking upon himself to be aggriev'd by both verdicts, & conceiving that the learned Judge, who tried the Cause, by his direction of the Jury, was of opinion that the Appellant had fail'd in proving the affirmative of either propositions on which he rested his cause, applied for a new trial of the Court of Exchequer, who after hearing Counsel several days, thought fit to order a new trial on both Issues, against which the Appellant Chaplin appeal'd. On this point the Debate arose, in wch. after the Ld. Chancellor had commented very ably; the Lords Dispencer Denbigh, Archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Mansfield spoke, and the debate closed with the following speech by Lord Camden.

My Lords—What the learned Lord Mansfield has observ'd that ye Lordships must undoubtedly give your votes, not according to any private inclination, but the law alone, is so decisively true, that nothing that I can say upon it, can either set it in a more conspicuous light, or add to the solidity of the foundation on wch. it rests. But I shall make a few observations on the manner in wh. this cause seem'd on the verge of being taken up by two Noble Lords.

There are cases wch. sometimes come before us, in wch. the fact is not easily separated from the Attendant Circumstances: This my Lords is one of them; and I must remark that there are not many of your Lordships in a Train of making these distinctions, & that due Discrimination, wch. is necessary between the naked fact, & these points wch. the evidence nesessarily threw around it. This depends upon habit. Men who sit every day in the Courts below, naturally bring their minds to see the law alone, & to guide themselves by the dictates of that only, let their opinions be what they may, or however hard or severe they may be, yet they habituate themselves to look on one side solely to the fact proved, & on the other to the mere letter of the law. My Lords, with respect to the present case, there are circumstances which have not been sufficiently distinguish'd from the naked facts. On the one hand there is no Church, no duty, and the Person [sic] residing at a great distance; on the other hand the Appellant has spent 8000£ in improvements on an Estate wch. his father bought under the presumption of the Composition of 15£ being good. These Circumstances both unite to make the Case a hard one, & to occasion its being taken up by one side of the house with too superficial a view of the point of law. And on the other hand a matter of Tythes, with the rights of the Church contended, may be the cause of a seeming alacrity on the contrary side to espouse the Respondents Cause. But my Lords the Case is simply this: The 13th of Elizabeth was pass'd with the direct intention & effect to prevent for ever after any Alienation of the Church's Patrimony, so that from that day forth no agreement cou'd be made for Composition that cou'd be a legal modus. A Prescription therefore of 60 or 160 years wou'd be but as one hour. If the Appellant does not prove the Composition to have originated before the 13th of Elizabeth, it is clearly no real Composition. Now my Ld. what proof does he bring of this? Why, None. He gives you some presumptive evidence, but nothing that amounts to a proof; and the Presumptions for him are combated wth. so many presumptions against him, that to think of its being a proof is impossible. In the 26th of Henry 8th, wch. is only 21 years before the Statute of the 13th of Elizabeth, the value of the Living of Rysom is returned to the King 4£. Now how is it possible that a Living of 4£ value shd. in an Age when the value of Land did not rise one year's purchase in a century, jump in 20 years to 15£? Wt. probability is there of this? And not only that incredible rise, but My Lords, the amount of 15£ wou'd then have been so much beyond the real value of the Tythes, that it cou'd only be done by the owner of the Estate making that magnificent provision for the Parson, at his own expense, without compulsion & not of saddling all his Posterity with the same. Upon the whole, my Lords it is impossible to conceive it to have been the case. The Case view'd in this light will sufficiently speak for itself. As for the Burthen of Tythes upon the Estate of the Laity, I agree fully in it, & heartily wish a Bill was brought in, that wou'd have the effect of giving to the Clergy an Equivalent of equal & rising value provided it was such as they freely agreed to accept. But, My Lords, till that is done we must vote in this & similar cases, not according to attendant circumstances, but the mere naked facts.

passed unanimously.

March 21st 1773.

TYTHE CAUSE. THE RECTOR OF ENSWEL Pl'tiff.

SOCIETY FOR PROPAGATING THE GOSPEL Defendt.

Before Mr. Justice Willes & a Special Jury at Bury on an Issue directed by the Court of Exchequer to try whether Tythe, or any Modus or satisfaction in lieu thereof, was payable for rabbits or conies sold off a Warren in that parish.

Verdict for the Plaintiff.

LLOYD Clk: Vicr: of St. Martins Shropshire.

Agt. JOHN BENTLEY an inhabitant & occupier of Lands within the sd. parish.

This action was bro't by the Vicar who was intitled to all the Small Tythes upon the Statute of the 2nd & 3rd of Edwd. 6th for carrying his clover (cut for seed) from the lands where the same grew, without setting forth the Tythe thereof, whereby Defnt. forfeited treble the value of the Tythe.

The Cause came to be tried at the Lent Assizes for the County of Salop in the year 1774, where the Plt: proved his right to all the vicarial Tythes of the parish, and it was admitted on all hands that Clover seed was a vicarial Tythe. But Baron Eyre who tried the Cause nonsuited the Pltiff. from an opinion that the Tythe in question being a seed, the Plt. cou'd not insist upon its being sett out upon the Lands in the manner that he had stated in his declaration, and said it ought to be paid at the Mill.

The following Term the Plt: moved for a new trial, & obtain'd a rule to show cause. And in Trinity Term the matter came on for Argument, when the Pltiff's. Counsel insisted that the Action was properly bro't and that the Tythe ought to be set out upon the Lands, since the stalk of clover when kept for seed, was a Thing of no material value and considered as mere trosh & refuse, at the same time observing that it wou'd be extremely unreasonable that the Farmer shd. be obliged to pay the Tythe in clean & pure seed at the Mill or elsewhere, considering the great expence & trouble attending the Harvesting, Carrying, Threshing & Cleaning the same & withal insisted that Pradial Tythes in general ought to be paid upon the Land. The Court upon the first Argument seemed inclined to think that the Tythe ought to be set out upon the Land. But Mr. Baron Perrott suggested a doubt whether the Tythe of Clover seed wch. he called the Minutiæ of Tythe came within the meaning of the Act of Parliament, and therefore the matter was order'd to stand over for further Argument till Mich'mass Term when the Court detirmined in favour of the Pltiff. on each point and granted a New Trial on payment of Costs.

At Lent Assizes 1775 the Cause came on again for trial upon the same Issue when the Pl'tiff had a Verdict, and the Jury finding the value of the Tythe at 20s. the Court trebled the same agreeable to the Statute and the Plt: had judgement accordingly for 3£ & costs of suit. But if the value of the Clover seed amounted to 20 nobles the Statute gave no Costs.

Oct. 18th. A violent storm of wind attended with much damage.

Dec. 25th. On Monday last (or the 19th) the Court of Exchequer gave Judgement in a cause between the Revd. Mr. Travis Vicr. of Eastham in the County Palatine of Chester Plff : and certain Occupiers of lands in that parish Defendants. The Townships composing this parish are eight, and in five of these the tithe of hay has constantly been paid to the Vicars of the parish in kind. All small tithes in kind, or satisfaction in lieu thereof have likewise been immemorialy paid to the Vicars thro' out all the townships composing the parish. The points in issue were—whether the Plff. in right of his vicarage, was intitled to the tithe of hay in kind in those three Townships within his parish, none of wch. it was admitted, had actually render'd that tithe in kind within the memory of living witnesses. And also whethr. the Plff. was moreover entitled to small tithes in kind in one of those Townships in lieu of wch. a general modus was insisted on by two of the Defendants. All the moduses set up & otherwise appearing in evidence (except the last mentioned one) were declared bad in law, and the Defendants were accordingly decreed to acc'nt with Plff.

as for the Tithe of hay in kind with costs, save that one Deft. whose case was more favourabley circumstanced than the others & was exempt from contributing in aid to the payment of those Costs.

The Extent only of the general modus, set up in lieu of the small Tithes is referred to the consideration of a Jury & the decree as against that, is reserved until the return of the Verdict. The Court being unanimous, the Judgement was delivered in writing by Mr. Baron Eyre, in the absence of the Chief Baron, who was indisposed. From the learned & convincing arguments, suggested by the Court as the ground of their decree, the rights of Vicars in general are now established on settled principles of law wch. only need to be clearly known in order to be, on all sides, universally submitted to.

It may be presum'd markets are lower'd by stopping Exportation of Grain, and encouraging importation, a Political maneuvre highly necessary in these turbulent times of contest between Great Britain and her colonies; who being in rebellion agnst. the Parent state, aided & abetted by a Faction at home, of provisions had continued at the late high price, the Leaders of Opposition wou'd have found it no difficult matter to have stirr'd up the lower Class of People to acts of Insurrection.

1776. The New Year is set in with a dreadful fall of snow wch. began on the 6th at night, blown in drifts by a brisk easterley wind, that it lies in several parts seven feet deep; & has render'd it impossible for the mails to pass: the London bag did not come in to Oswestry from the 8th till the 16th. The snow did not fall so deep in this neighbourhool as nearer London. It has been observ'd that English snows [?] wch. fall with an Easterly wind are always the deepest.

1776, Jan. 30. The snow continues so deep, & the Frost so severe that the London mails have not yet come in regularly. The 21st was remarkable for intense cold, and the 27th nearly as keen.

,, Feb. 1. A drizzling rain, wch. fell partly in Icecles, and froze as it fell. Many accidents happen'd from the slippery surface of the paths wch. were perfectly glazed. Travillers cloaths instead of being wet, were so stiffly congealed about them that it was with difficulty they were got off. The wings of small Birds were so frozen that they fell to the ground. Many were picked up and others died frozen to the ground. The next

,, Feb. 2. day a gentle thaw began to discover the face of the earth, wch. had been hid for so long a time.

Another new road open'd opposite Halston Garden, and another new Bridge erected over the River Perry . . . . this road is continued thro' the parish of Halston along the bottom leaving Kinsel as you travel for Ellesmere on the right hand (whereas the old road left it on the left). The parish boundary hereby will require a new description; Part of the old road near Evenal White House being in Francton in this parish, but the present road changed it totally in to Halston from the New Bridge, till it enters into Rudge in the parish of Ellesmere. N.B. The Bridge was erected at the expence of Mr. Mytton; the road to be charg'd to the Turnpike.

This cut shortens the road to Ellesmere about half a mile. W. Roberts, Rr.

July 5th. On Monday the 9th of last month came on before the Baron's of the Court of Exchequer the Rehearing of the Cause, wherein the Revd. Mr. Travis, Vicar of Eastham in the county of Chester was Pltff. & certain occupiers of lands within the Parish were Defendants (vid: Dec: 1775).

The Defendants conceiving themselves to be aggriev'd by that decree, applied to the Court in Hilary term last for a Rehearing. The points chiefly insisted upon by the Defnts: Counsel were—That proof of an enjoyment of the Tithes in question, in other parts of the parish, was not prima facie evidence of an original endowment in those parts of the parish from whence the Tithes in question were demanded by the Bill.—And that proof of a bad Modus by a Vicar did not give to him, (as to a Rector) a right to Tithes in kind, in the first instance, where the Def'dnt. denied his right to such Tithes without having the cause previously sent to a trial at Law.—The Rehearing continued 4 days & the Court, after taking a Fortnight's consideration of the Arguments urg'd by the Counsel on both sides, were pleas'd on Tuesday July 1st unanimously to affirm the former decree in favour of the Pltff. with costs.

Counsel for the Pltff: Mr. Skynner, Mr. Kenyon & Mr. Arden.
— for the Defnts: Thurloe, the Attorney General, Messrs. Maddocks, Wilson Cooper & Lloyd.

It is to be remark'd that the weather continued mostly cold 'till towards the middle of June & the sun continued very shy of showing his face, but has made ample amends from that time as we have not, of late years experienc'd such warm Summer weather. On the 27th of June a Thunder storm alarm'd the Town of Oswestry, the Lightening was terrible. It's severities fell upon the house of one Fox a Carrier in the Town, whose servant maid was kill'd by it, but no other lives lost tho' many in the house nor other damage except a bedstead shiver'd in pieces. Another Thunder storm on July 19th fired two farm houses and two barns in Newton near Ellsmere.

The storm at the commencement of the year 1779 seem'd to forebode a turbulent year, at least so it has turn'd out. The war with the revolted Colonies of America still continues to rage; add to this a war with France & Spain; the Irish bullying for a free Trade, the Scots grumbling on acco't of the repeal of the roman Catholic Bill of pains & penalties, & if these were not evils sufficient, a forminable opposition in Parliament, to the present Administration, Parties carried so far as to endanger the very Constitution. Poor old England under these complicated troubles without an ally.—Heaven Grant! That the new year may be productive of happier times!

The old year, however, Thanks to an indulgent Providence, has not closed, without opening to us a dawn of Comfort and the new year seems to be ushering in with brightening Omens of future success against our perfidious enemies. The failure of the attack upon Savanna in Georgia by the grand French fleet under the Count d' Estaing assisted by the American Army under General Lincoln, and the dispersing of the French fleet by a storm has given a new face to affairs in that Quarter. The Taking of the fort of Omou from the Spaniards in the West Indies together with the Capture of some of their Galeons, must make them repent of their alliance. The passing of the Irish Bill in favour of a free Trade has fill'd their hearts with Joy and gratitude. We want nothing now but unanimity at home & vigour to our Councils to complete our happiness and to render us respectable.

The fashion of the Times are Petitions and Committees of correspondence for a plan of Reform & Æconomy in the expenditure of public money. A Plan much wanted and much wish'd for, but whether proceeding at present from Patriotic motives, or from the private views of Individuals and the violence of Parties, Time only can discover.

1781. Dreadful Acco'ts from the West Indies, many of the Islands have sufferd severely by a terrible hurricane on the 8th of October, wch. has made a general devastation amongst them. St. Dominigo, Barbadoes, St. Lucia, St. Vincent, Guadaloupe, Martinico, St. Eustatia, are said to have been almost laid in ruins: Whole towns are wash'd into the sea, or blown up from their foundations. Nothing to be seen scarce but ruins and dead Bodies floating, or scattered up & down. Other Islands have suffered partially, but not so generally as far as we are at present inform'd. Great destruction amongst the shipping. English, French & Dutch have all been sharers in this calamity. A Warning this to the Powers at War, When God's judgements are in the Earth, the Inhabitants of the world should learn Righteousness: Providence has at one stroke so defac'd these once flourishing Islands, for wch. Belligerent Parties have been long contending, as to render them objects of compassion not of Ambition.

The War with France, Spain, and the revolted Colonies of America still continues to rage with unabated fury : and the New Year opens with a Dutch War : They have been treacherous friends, and perhaps may do us less injury, when we treat them as open Enemies. The last news that the Island of Jersey was taken by the French, & retaken by the brave Islanders in seven hours time on the 10th of this inst. Jan.

In America the royal Cause begins to brighten.

1781. The year 1781 has closed unfavourably to the Parent State: The Capture of Lord Cornwallis's Army at York Town in Virginia has proved a severe blow to the royal Cause & seems to have given the Americans fresh Spirits. Sir George Rodney's success over the Spanish fleet near Gibralter, and his Capture of the Dutch Islands of St. Eustatius, Demerary, & Issequibo, occasion'd a general Joy: But it was short lived: The French Governor of Martinico, the Marquis De Bouille, has retaken the Dutch Islands, and has added other valuable conquests, by reducing the Settlements of Grenada Dominica and St. Vincent to the subjection of France. The Year 1782 has been equally unfavourable as far as this date, that is, to the end of the Month of March—De Bouille has Taken Tobago, St. Kitts, Nevis Monturrat, Barbuda & Anquilla.—And the Spanish General the Duc de Crillon has reduced the strong fortress of Fort St: Phillip (tho' bravely defended by General Murray) & the Island of Minorca to the Arms of Spain. This heap of Misfortunes has brought about a total change in the Administration of this Kingdom. A new set of men are appointed to fill up the several Departments of the State, God grant their measures may be more fortunate!

The twelfth of April will for ever be recorded for a most glorious victory obtain'd by the British fleet in the West Indies under the command of Admiral Sir George Bridges Rodney, against the French fleet commanded by Admirable De Grasse. The fleets consisted of 36 line of battle ships each, besides frigates, but the weight of the metal was in favour of the enemy. The battle lasted with unremitting fury from seven in the morn: till half past six in the evening, when the setting sun put an end to the contest.

Ships captur'd were the Ville de Paris	110 guns,	Admiral De Grass, 1500 men.

Le Glorieux	74 —	650.
Le Hector	74 —
Ardent	64 —
Le Cesar	74	blew up by accident 500 lives lost, including 50 English after possession.
Le Diadem	74	sunk, every man lost.

By a subsequent Acco't captur'd since the general engagement.

Le Caton	64 guns.	650 men.
Le Jasan	64 —	650
Le Amiable [?]	frigate 36 guns,	by Sir Saml. Hood's Division.
Le Ceres	—	18 —

The enemies loss in killed, wounder & prisoners is computed at least to 15000 & upwards.

The brave Admiral writes to his friend—

"Thanks to Providence! It is done! the French fleet is entirely defeated, and Britain's flag flies victorious.

I am, etc: G. B. Rodney."

The last dispatches from the East Indies bring favorable acco'ts of the successes gained by the fleet under the command of Sir Edd: Hughes against the French fleet, & some of the Dutch Settlements, and by the Army commanded by Sir Eyre Coot against Hay-dar Aly & the Marattas.

Admiral Rodney has been unfortunate in the return of the French men of war captured by him on the glorious 12th of April. The Ville de Paris, Glorieux and Le Hector being lost with the English Crews on Board.

The Brave Govenor Elliot, Gibraltar, with his brave garrison have sustain'd a Siege of three years & upwards against the combined Arms of France & Spain, and have at length triumph'd over all their Attacks.

Preliminaries of Peace with France, Spain, & America were sign'd at Paris—to which the Dutch acceded. The Independence of America was the Basis of this cessation of Hostilities.

This has been a remarkable year of Scarcity. All articles of Subsistence bore an extravagant price. A Subscription was set on foot in this parish to buy flour, which was sold to the industrious Poor at half price, which form'd a Seasonable relief.

JOHN JEFFRYES, Curate.

The old decay'd Yew Trees taken down, and a row of Lime Trees planted, remov'd from Park, into the Church yard in the years 1762 & 63. W. ROBERTS, Rr.

[Note the following added by a later hand:]

These fine & venerable old Yew trees were with unfeeling disregard of any sense of Taste and Propriety, mercilessly destroyed by the barbarous and avaricious gripe of old Roberts:—who afterwards assisted in the destruction of some of Western Towers of the Castle, for the purpose of reparing the roads. proh! pudor!

His Epitaph.

Here lies the Decoyman who lived like the otter
Dividing his time betwixt land and water
His hide he oft soak'd in the waters of Perry
Whilst Aston old Beer his spirits kept cheery.
Amphibious his Trim, Death was puzzled, they say,
How to dust to reduce such well moisten'd clay,
So Death turn'd Decoyman, & {decoy'd / allur'd} him to land,
Where he fix'd his abode 'till quite dried to his hand,
He then found him fitting for crumbling to Dust,
And here he lies mould'ring as you & I must.

N.B. He had retired to Whittington upon a Freehold he had purchased with the perquisites of his place from the Decoy for a few years before his death.

In this year pass'd An Act of Parliament for dividing & enclosing the Commons or waste lands within the several Townships of Whittington, Berghill, Francton, Hindford, Henlley, Ebnal, Daywell, Old Martin in the parish of Whittington, and Porkington in the parish of Syllatyn within the Manor of Whittington and County of Salop—allotted to the Lord a thirteenth part of the said Commons in consideration of his giving up his right to the lime stone quarries for the benefit of the freeholders as therin mention'd & in lieu of his right to the soil. Allotted to the Rector a proportion of Common in respect of his Glebes to be fined at the expence of the several Proprietors.

This Bill was warmly oppos'd in both Houses of Parliament by a very inferior number of Freeholders which enhanc'd the expence of the bill without any other effect than bringing a great expence upon themselves.

Whom no man did hate:
At the age of fourscore
And four years more.
He pretended to wrestle
With Death for his Castle:
He was soon out of breath
And surrendered to Death
Who away him did take
On the Eve of our Wake
In the Morn about seven,
To keep Wake in Heaven.

In 1782 and still more in 1783 a remarkable haze extended over the whole of Europe. Seen in a mas this haze was of a pale blue colour. It was thickest at noon when the Sun appeared through it of a red colour. Rain did not in the least degree effect it. It occasionally yielded a peculiar odour. This haze was dispersed in the Summer of 1733 [sic 1783].

,,	Dec. 19.	Michael, s. of Cath: Evans, widow, by a decay, a Pauper	7
,,	Dec. 22.	Anne, w. of Richard Gittins, of Francton	64

A Severe winter, the frost set in the day before Christmass day and continued to introduce the New Year.

WM. ROBERTS, Rr.

and I may add as there is a vacancy—the Frost continued to March, 1784.

I sore forebode these frosty times
Will nip my nob, but then, my rhymes
In puff complete, in richness big,
And full and flowing as my wig,
Will future bards and priests explore
'Till Taste and Talent are no more;
While dull, though disembodied, I
Jump up a Gnome 'twixt earth and sky,
Perch on the pen of rhyming elf
And squat a squabby rhyme my self.
A brat I boast, light pudding Billy

Whom, though the witless world calls silly,
And though but lame in hic, hoc hoc,
Is a right chip of the old block.

WM. ROBERTS, Rr.

A proof impression of himself
Who'd sell his soul to save his pelf.

W. EVANS, P. Clerke.

Copied from a Register kept by the Clerk, Oct. 12th, 1802.

W. W. Davies, Rector.

1801 and 1802. The parsonage house had considerale additions & improvements; two new Rooms, viz. a Library and dining room were added to the North front, on the ground floor, with a good vestibule between. The old staircase was removed, & replaced with a new one of Dantzick oak; a Servants Hall with a bedroom over it, at the East End, was rebuilt; outhouses consisting of a pantry, larder, milk-house, poultry-yard, coal-yard, two pigstyes, & a saddle room were built. The Stable door made to face the E., and the Coach house converted into a stable. On the West side of the house a new Necessary house was built; the Turnpike road was turned further from the Rectory; & a piece of land purchased for 300 guineas converted into a garden, & a stone wall built round it. The smoky chimney in the little parlour was entirely cured. which had obstinately baffled all the efforts of Mr. Roberts and others, various & ingenious as they were.

The Church was taken down & rebuilt in 1805 & 1806 from a design of Mr. Harrison of Chester: it is a large brick building in dimensions 60 feet by 50. In the body are three aisles & 6 rows of seats, with a gallery 50 feet by 17½. Towards the expense, amounting to about 1500£, two briefs produced 42£ 2s. 1d. By a reference to Burns' Eccl. Law Article Brief, it appears that the charge upon each Brief is 330£ 16s. 6d., consequently that a sum of no less amount than £703 15s. 1d. must have been raised in order to benefit the paris of Whittington £42 2s. 1d. The interior of this church is extremely neat, and fitted up with good Taste; the ceiling being of deal beautifully jointed in squares, with cross-bars, renders it chaste & pleasing to the eye, & by preventing too great a degree of echo, useful to the audience & officiating minister. The Pews are all faced with Dantzick oak, numbered, & marked according to their respective appropriations.

August 5th.

Charles Arthur Albany Lloyd, Rector of Whittington in the year 1809, was born at Aston in the Parish of Oswestry Jany. 22nd, 1785.

George Newton Kynaston Lloyd, Rector of Selattyn 1811 was born at Aston on the 23rd August 1786. He died at Selattyn Jany. 1846.

Whitehall, Whitehall, Davies was the only son of Peter Davies Esq. of Broughton in the Co. of Flint. He was educated at Macclesfield School under the Revd. Henry Inglis afterwards Doctor Ingles head master of Rugby School until he entered Christ Church College Cambridge. Here Mr. Davies formed a friendship for Messrs Tenant, Gell, Wilson, Harwood & Smyth. Mr. Smithson Tenant became Professor of Chemistry in the University, & greatly distinguished himself by various chemical discoveries among which were two new metals which he found with ore of Platinum. Mr. Gell, afterwards Sir William Gell was celebrated as a traveller in Greece & Asia Minor. Mr. Harwood became Professor of Anatomy. Mr. Smyth Professor of Ancient History.

Carus Wilson Esq. was a wrangler & distinguished for his piety & having sons who are eminent ministers of Jesus Christ.

Mr. Davies obtained the honour of Senior Optime in taking his Degree of A.B. & soon after was selected fellow of Christ College.

The Revd. J. R. Lloyd, Rector of this Parish died on the 10th August 1801, when the Revd. W. W. Davies was presented to the Rectories of Whittington & Selattyn. Mr. Davies improved the Rectory House in 1801 & 1802 & in 1805 & 1806. The Parish Church was rebuilt under his direction.

In 1809 he resigned the Rectory of Whittington, & in 1810 that of Selattyn.

On March 1810 he became the proprietor of Lannerch estate in Denbighshire by the death of Mr. Leo, & in Novr. of the same year he succeeded to the estate of Broughton on the death of his father Peter Davies, Esqr. Mr. W. Davies was second cousin to the Revd. J. R. Lloyd. Mr. Lloyd's Grandfather having married a Miss Whitehall, of Broughton. Mr. W. W. Davies with the assistance of Lord Kenyon erected & endowed a Chapel on [?] wood & built a house for the Minister. On June 10th 1824 he died at Broughton & was succeeded to his estate by his sister, the widow of the Revd. Mr. Alanson.

RECTORY HOUSE.

Wall painted vermillion rebuilt by the Revd. William Roberts, 1738.

Blue, 4 Rooms built 1801 & 1802 by the Revd. W. Whitehall Davies.

Wine Cellar under the Hall & two Cellars under the Library. No rooms over the Library & Dining room. Stairs of 11 steps made of Dantzic Oak to the Bedrooms. Stairs into the cellars, & a store room over them 1802. Floors of the Library, Dining room & little Parlour are of oak. The apple room also of wood. The floor of the best staircase of the Hall, are of free stone. All the other floors are of tiles or bricks. The House porch was converted into a still room 1802. Over the rooms painted blue is a covering of Vernant slates. The old part of the house was covered with Glyn slates, most of these have been removed by C. A. A. Lloyd from time to time & have been replaced by Llanygnog & Carnarvonshire. The walls coloured green were rebuilt by C.A.A.L.

The Register of Halston.

Halston Register.

HALSTON, formerly extra parochial, is situated 3½ miles north-east of Oswestry, and is about 700 acres in extent. It now lies in the parish of Whittington. Miss Wright is the sole landowner, and Lady of the Manor.

The Register Book is in good preservation (size 15¼ by 9½ inches), it is of paper, bound in leather; all entries prior to 1756 are copies, some, as noted, being taken from loose scraps of paper, others from Halston Church Bibles and Common Prayer Books. One Bible containing entries is still preserved at Halston. The Rev. W. Walsham How, Rector of Whittington 1851-79, and afterwards Bishop Suffragan of Bedford, and first Bishop of Wakefield, has made a note in the Register, initialed "W. W. H." showing which these are. One marriage entry is made on the page after the title page, and then follows an account of Halston, written apparently by one of the Chaplains. In the handwriting of the Rev. William Roberts appear the copied entries as mentioned above; and all Births, Christenings, and Burials up to 1773, and Marriages to 1750. The Marriages, some twenty in number, from 1754 to 1826, are written on the usual printed forms bound up in the book.

From very early times Halston was regarded as a Sanctuary. Its name, according to Pennant (1784) means "Holy Stone," and he suggests that a Cross or "some object of superstition must once have stood here," adding apparently with satisfaction, "that it and its legend are quite lost."

The quaint "Black and White" Chapel stands in the low lying meadows at the back of Halston house, somewhat difficult of access with no road of approach. A small square tower contains one bell, engraved with the date 1678. The formation of the interior is plain, with the exception of a handsome candelabrum. The ruins of considerable foundations are to be found in the near neighbourhood of the Chapel indicating the existence of an older and more important fabric, which was taken down about 1690, when the present house was built. In the little grave-yard are three very small headstones, bearing the following dates and initials, though now nearly obliterated:

W. B.	? B . . low	M. B.
1744.	died Feb. 23, 1736.	1769.

From about the 13th century Halston was held by the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem, supposed to have been bestowed upon them by one of the Fitz-Alans. Eyton in his Antiquities of Shropshire, Vol. x., gives some details of the Income and Expenditure of the Order in 1338..

In 1791 Halston is thus described:—The district, or place, known by the name of Halston at present consists of the Mansion House and two Farm Houses without any other Dwellings. There is a Chapel without any revenues annexed to it, the Chaplain is appointed by the owner of Halston, who allows him what he in his discretion thinks proper, and the Chapel has now actually been shut up, and no duty done there, for seven years last past. Christenings, Marriages, and Burials have been performed at Halston, but since the Chapel has been shut up, the few inhabitants of the place have resorted to the neighbouring Parish.

As shown in the account in the beginning of the Register Book, the family of Mytton is the most important mentioned therein. The birth of William, the Antiquary, is recorded on 19th Dec., 1693. And on 30th Sept., 1796, was born the famous Jack Mytton, who died 1834, in the King's Bench Prison. He held the same offices which many of his family had held before him, he was Member for Shrewsbury, and Sheriff of the county, but it is the many tales of his fearless horsemanship, and his erratic habits that will render him better known, and longer remembered than any of his fore-bears, as his life written by Nimrod shows. His son sold the estate in 1847 to Mr. Wright, grandfather of the present owner.

The Rev. William Wynn Owen, M.A., Tutor to Jack Mytton, and for many years Chaplain of Halston, graduated at Jesus Coll., Oxon., in 1798, and was inducted as Rector of Llanymowddy, Jan. 7, 1819. He died May 11, 1834, aged 59.

We find the following reference in the Parish Register Abstract 1831, "Halston, P.C. One Book, (in the possession of Messrs. Hodgson and Burton, Solicitors, Salisbury Street, London) Bap: 1686—1826. Bur: 1696—1826. Mar: 1699—1812. One leaf at the end of Marr: appears to have been cut out."

The Register is now kept under the care of the Rector of Whittington, the Rev. E. Pell Edmonds, who has kindly consented to its publication from a transcript made by Miss Rachel Leighton, and collated by Rev. W. G. D. Fletcher.

Register of Births, Baptisms, Marriages, and Deaths, in the District of Halston, in the County of Salop.

[1686 to the present time. On the cover.]

Halston.

In Saxon times, the Lordship of Halston belonged to Edric. At that time there were on it two Welshmen and one Frenchman. After the Conquest it became the property of Guarine (Sheriff of Shropshire, ancester to the Fitzalans, Earls of Arundel), by marriage with Millet Peverel, daughter of Pain Peverel, who received this as part of her fortune. Afterwards it became a commandery, belonging to the Knights of St. John of Jerusalem, bestowed on them by one of the Fitz-guarines, Lords of Whittington.

In the 26 of Henry VIII., it was valued at £160 14s. 10d. a year. At the Dissolution, Henry VIII. empowered, by his letters patent, John Sewster, Esq., to dispose of this Manor to Alan Horde, who did homage for it; and afterwards exchanged it for other lands, with Edward Mytton, of Habberley, the antient patrimony of the family in this county; which alienation was confirmed by Queen Elizabeth. At this place was born the famous General Mytton, a most able, active, and successful commander on the part of the Parliament during the Civil Wars. The scene of his actions was chiefly in Shropshire and North Wales. By his military prowess, Shrewsbury and most of the Castles in North Wales were subdued, and he greatly distinguished himself in several battles; but finding that Cromwell and his party had further designs than mere defence of liberty (the cause in which he engaged), resigned his command and retired. He was born in 1608, married a daughter of Sir J. Napier, of Luton, baronet; died in London, 1656, and was interred in the Church of St. Chad's, Shrewsbury, on the 29th of November.

Mr. William Mytton made a large collection of materials for writing a History of Shropshire, among them Mr. Edward Lloyd's History of Shropshire, which Mr. Pennant mistook for Mr. W. Mytton's. Unfortunately, Mr. W. Mytton died before he wrote his intended History. He employed an artist, who made drawings of many places in Shropshire. The Mansion House was built about the year 1690. The brook Perry has been considerably widened, forming large pieces of water. The Perry rises in the hills, in the Parish of Selattyn, passes through much low ground to the village of Ruyton, and afterwards falls into the Severn a little below Montford Bridge. There is a private Chapel here, but it [is] exempt from the jurisdiction of the Bishop. It has a burial ground with several yew trees growing in it.
